

Supported Independent Living

Cerebral Palsy Alliance (CPA) provides personalised, 24/7 in-home support and care for people living with physical and/or intellectual disabilities in 100 homes across the Sydney, Newcastle, and Central Coast regions.

Our Supported Independent Living (SIL) shared group homes offer residents their own private room, access to shared living spaces, and outdoor areas. A shared vehicle is available at every home for transport.

Highly trained staff provide all residents with 24/7 support and care, with staff awake overnight.

Why choose Cerebral Palsy Alliance?

CPA is an NDIS Registered Specialist Disability Accommodation (SDA) and a Supported Independent Living (SIL) Provider in NSW.

CPA has over 80 years of experience in the disability sector delivering accommodation services. Our highly trained staff provide best practice support to residents.

Supported Independent Living (SIL) includes:

- 24/7 support to assist residents to achieve their goals and greater independence
- Assistance with personal care, such as showering, dressing, and toileting
- Assistance with household tasks, such as preparing meals, washing clothes and cleaning
- Support with medical administration and specialist or medical appointments
- Assistance with everyday activities outside of the home, such as grocery shopping, going out for a meal, going out for a walk, transportation to participate in the community, and access services.

At our homes:

- All in-home SIL service is provided by CPA. For services outside of SIL hours, residents can use CPA or their preferred providers
- Residents' family and friends are welcome
- Residents' independence and inclusion are supported in household and community activities
- Residents receive personalised support with meal planning and preparation
- Residents have support 24/7 with staff awake overnight.

"Choosing a CPA home for our daughter is one of the best decisions we have made. She is happy and so settled here, I feel happy about that in myself."

Richard, parent
